

A Constipation Remedy Free

There is no action of your daily life of greater importance than to see that your bowels move. They should move at least once a day naturally, and by that is meant without any help. If they do not move at least once a day you can consider yourself constipated and it is time you do something about it.

You will be glad to know there is a way out of the difficulty. Samuel Landroffe, an old soldier at Quincy, Ill., Elmer McMillan, of Speed, Mo., Mrs. Monahan, of Stowaway, Miss., and many others were as you are now. But one day they took to the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin was curing their friends, so they bought it too and it cured them. Today they are loud in praise of it.

What Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin did for them it should do for you. Surely your occupation is no worse than theirs, one of whom had it since '91. It only requires temporary good, and what you want is a permanent cure; that purgative tablets, cathartic pills and such violent things make a great show of doing something, but do nothing that is lasting. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a scientific preparation, a laxative tonic, a mild syrupy liquid that contains ingredients that not only cure the constipation, but tone the intestinal muscles so that they learn again to work without help. A bottle can be bought of any druggist for the small price of 50 cents, and there is a dollar's worth of families who have already found out its wonderful value in stomach, liver and bowel troubles in old or young.

Send your name and address to the doctor, and a free trial bottle will be sent you only on condition that you return it, so that you can test it before buying.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 500 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

Game Worthy of Encouragement. There's a game called "Tickle the Editor," says the Oolitic News. You take an ordinary sheet of writing paper on which you pen a few lines suitable for the occasion. Next you fold it carefully, enclosing the fold a banknote sufficiently large to pay all arrears and a year in advance and hand it to the editor. Keep an eye on him and if a smile adorns "his face, the trick works fine. It can also be played by mail. Now is the time to play the joke.

Do you know that you can save $2.50 on every $100 in cash spent with Cook & Co.

GOODELL-MCCALL. Married on Thursday, June 24, 1909, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex J. McCall, of Milford, Mr. Alfred C. Goodell of Detroit, and Miss Edith McCall.

Promptly at five o'clock the bridal couple, unattended and preceded by the minister, Rev. T. J. Gregg of the M. E. church of Milford, entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Eliza Goodell, sister of the groom. The impressive ring ceremony was used.

The bride was daintily gowned in white batiste and carried pink roses. The groom wore the conventional black.

Only the nearest relatives of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony. After congratulations an elegant three-course supper was served in the dining room, which was decorated with pink and white carnations and ferns.

They were the recipients of a number of valuable and useful gifts, tokens of the love and good wishes of friends both present and absent.
