

Sharette family leads service

As a feature of its periodic jazz workshop services, the University Hills Church in Farmington usually invites the Sharette Family to provide part of the special musical program. The local singing group will be back at 7 p.m. Sunday for the fourth in a series of the musical vespers activities this year. The service will be preceded by a pot luck picnic under the trees on the church grounds. Bill Swavze, music director at the church, will lead the jazz combo which will provide most of the musical program. The group will feature Detroit area bassist, Don Palmer. Also on the program will be a

Vince Giralde setting of "Humbly We Adore Thee" for congregational singing with jazz ensemble accompaniment. The Sharette Family will put jazz treatments to familiar hymns as well as sing a medley of songs from the musical, "Godspell," which will close with the communion song, "You Are the Light of the World," expressing the main theme of the jazz service. Families coming for the picnic are asked to bring a buffet dish for eight to ten people. The church is located on Farmington Road, north of I-696.
