

The Toughest Kid on the block is Buster Brown. Shoes styled the way kids like 'em. Snug fitting, no-slip backs with rugged leather tops and play-hard soles and heels. Every pair carefully fitted . . . from Redden & Rawlinson

Sweet-Treats for Kids — of all ages. By the box, or by the bag, they're Kitchen-Fresh, and oh, so good from Fannie May Candies

From Madame Alexander . . .

The next best thing to a real live sister is one of these classic dolls. Choose Heidi at $16.95 — Scarlet O'Hara at $21.95 — Renoir Girl at $18.95 . . . all are 14" tall with rooted hair to comb and sparkling eyes that move. Beautifully dressed in authentic costumes.

The real-est newborn baby doll is Victoria and she's 20" long. She has a tiny baby voice, eyes that move and comes dressed in a dainty outfit at $15.95

Castles of Spain — authentically styled and complete in every detail. Boys and girls, 5 years and up, will spend hours assembling the snap-together, non-toxic bricks — as illustrated in the booklet — or let their imagination take over. $7.50 to $24.95 from F.A.O. Schwarz