

Lisa Gibson wins music scholarship

Lisa Gibson was one of six winners when the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs held its scholarship competition this month. A voice major, she received a full scholarship to the National Music Camp in Interlochen this summer.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Gibson, of 32310 Queensboro, Farmington, and won the honor by singing "Ah! non credea mirati - Ah, non gungo" by Vincenzo Bellini.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Fry

Mary Young and James S. Fry were married June 7 at an evening ceremony in St. Genevieve Catholic Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young of Farmington. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fry of Birmingham.

For the wedding the bride wore a white gown of eyelet and a full-length veil attached to a Juliet headpiece. She carried white daisies and white roses.

The couple received guests in the East Ballroom of Mercy College before leaving on a wedding trip to Bermuda.

St. Clare Nursery opens registration

Registrations are being taken now by parents of children from two-and-a-half to five years of age who wish to enroll in St. Clare's Nursery School. The school is located in the church, 29200 W. Ten Mile, Farmington.

Weekday morning sessions are held from 9:30-11:45 a.m. and afternoon sessions run from noon-2:15 p.m.

Directors of the school are Gloria Stonisch and Judi Schiama. Inquiries will be taken by calling 474-8562 or 476-9192.

Wiess-Matkovich

Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Wiess of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Acan, to Gregory M. Matkovich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael D. Matkovich of Livonia. The bride-elect is a graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School and employed by Mr. B. Pet Salon as a dog groomer. Her fiancé graduated from Fairmont State College in West Virginia. They plan an Oct. 12 wedding in Mercy Center Chapel in Farmington Hills.

Mrs. Robert M. Hack

Dorothy Charlotte Robinson, formerly of Southfield, and Robert Milton Hack were wed June 18 at Adat Shalom Synagogue, Farmington. The new Mrs. Hack is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Robinson of Plantation, Fla. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hack of Farmington.

The bridal gown of ivory imported chiffon was designed by Frank Masandra and featured crystal-pleated chiffon sleeves trimmed with beaded re-embroidered alençon lace at the cuff, waist and neckline. She carried a bouquet of cymbidium orchids, sweet-heart roses and stephanotis.

The bride is a teacher in Southfield and the groom is a member of the Southfield Civil Defense.

The couple is now living in Troy following a European wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey L. Katz

Ian Michelle Aronsson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl-Gunnar Aronsson of Bloomfield Hills, became the bride of Jeffrey Lee Katz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Katz of Farmington, on Aug. 4 at the Raleigh House.

Legal office classes set

Two new courses for legal secretaries will be offered at the Orchard Ridge Campus of Oakland Community College.

One course, Legal Transcription and Legal Terminology, will be taught by a qualified instructor from the legal field.

Conference and Court Reporting (machine shorthand) also will be offered.

These classes will meet on Wednesday evenings during the fall semester.

The courses are designed to increase the specialization and efficiency of legal secretarial students or legal secretaries who want to upgrade their skills.

Registration will be held Sept. 3-12. For information contact Don Nichols, public information officer, at 476-9400, extension 226.
