

Covering

The great cape takes the fall train to fashion city — in hues of brick and bittersweet. The mohair cape and suit jacket, match elegantly, a silk crep de chine blouse and tweed skirt, that's just the right length on model Pat Blanchard. The clothes are the creation of Parisian designer Bernard Perris — the trains, compliment of AM-TRACK, all at the Michigan Central Station, Detroit.

For shopping information, call 644-1100 between 8:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday and ask for fashion shopping guide information.

The Fashion Trip was produced by Chris Walden, an Observer & Eccentric Newspaper fashion writer. Contributing writers were Ms. Walden, Susan Averill and Patricia Beach Smith, special section's editor, who also coordinated the section. The cover and inside photographic coverage was done by Lona Askins. Photographs on page 26 were done by Barbara McClellan.
