

Swirly, sensuous evening wear highlighted the show

'You won't wear these to skule'

Bonwit's coat for the young classicist, very proper, indeed!

For walking about on those terribly cold days you know are coming... a proper coat shaping by Rainbow Girl Coat Co. Here, the important camel, top-stitched, wool plush, for 7 to 14 sizes, $4.00. Add 1.35 outside delivery area. Children's, First Floor Bonwit Teller 2701 Somerset Mall Call 643-8700

BONWIT TELLER

Israeli haute couture designers continue to pour out exotic creations for the country's fastest growing ($150 million a year) export industry.

A parade of some of the pre-1975 Israeli fashions were viewed by 300 Detroiters who bought Israel bonds at the "Billion Dollar Dinner" Monday in Congregation Shaarey Zedek.

THE ARRAY, saucy, sexy and unique, was summed up by commentator Goldie Adler when she said, "You won't see a thing here designed for anyone over size 10 and nothing you can wear to skule."

If there was a theme to the show, it was "color." Guests were treated to vignettes of vibrant yellows, blues, greens and reds, and maybe because Israel is a hot country for much of the year, the bulk of the showings were for resort wear.

Yet there is always a heavy sprinkling of the sueded and the leathers. The Israeli designers are heavy on suede for trim and heavy on oriental beads for decoration.

The most glamorous part of the (See ISRAELI, Page 10)

"You'll never wear this to skule," said commentator Goldie Adler

Parks-Fowkes

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Parks of Bloomfield Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Ruth, to Mark C. Fowkes, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Fowkes of Northville.

A November wedding is planned.

Miss Parks was graduated from Lahser High School in 1971. Her fiance was graduated from Northville High School in 1971 and is the manager at Dolphin Pools, Inc., Garden City.

The couple will return to Western Michigan University in January to complete degrees in education.

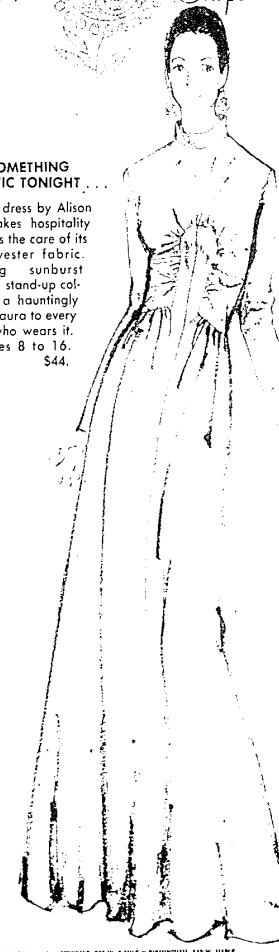

At Chudiks...
A Bride is a
Very Special Person!
chudiks
294 EAST BROWN • BIRMINGHAM • MI 7-1300

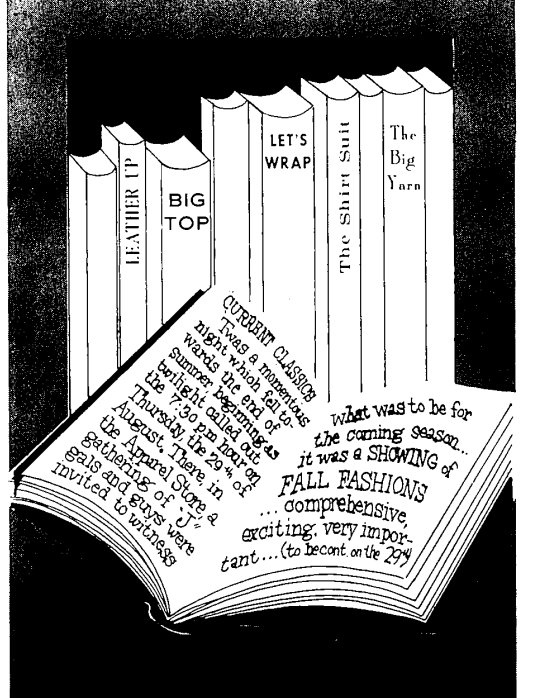

START SOMETHING
ROMANTIC TONIGHT...

Our long dress by Alison Ayres makes hospitality as easy as the care of its soft polyester fabric. Flattering sunburst waist and stand-up collar gives a hauntingly beautiful aura to every woman who wears it. Red. Sizes 8 to 16. $44.

THE RB SHOPS
ROYAL OAK, 314 W. 40 N. FERRISDALE, 220 W. 8 MILE N. BIRMINGHAM, 242 W. MAPLE
MONTICELLO, TEL-HURON N. ROCHESTER, NORTH HILL PLAZA
N. SOUTHWICK, TEL-TWENTY

LEATHER UP
BIG TOP
LET'S WRAP
The Shirt Suit
The Big Yarn

CURRENT CLASSICS
It was a memorable night which got us started the evening of the 29th of August. There, in the Apparel Store, a gathering of 'J's' and guys were invited to witness what was to be for the coming season... it was a SHOWING of FALL FASHIONS... comprehensive, exciting, very important... (to be continued on the 29th)

SALLY RANKIN

Red Cross appoints chairman

Mrs. Sally Rankin of Oak Park has been appointed as Red Cross Oakland Regional Chairman of Volunteers.

Mrs. Rankin's duties will involve structuring the activities of Red Cross volunteer programs and personnel in the Oakland area.

For the past eight years, Mrs. Rankin has served as a Red Cross hospital volunteer at Providence Hospital and as a regional chairman of Hospital volunteers at the Oakland Regional Office.

The wife of a civil engineer and mother of three children, Mrs. Rankin is active in a variety of organizations.

She serves as a member on the executive board for the Detroit Presbyterian Association and also works with the district court of Ferndale in its probation program.