Used books go on sale

The Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its annual used book sale in the Livonia Mall starting Thursday, Sept. 26, and continuing through Sunday, Sept. 29. Sale hours are the same as regular shopping hours in the mall.

"This is for insatiable readers, early bird Christmas shoppers and bargain hunters," said Zita Casagrande, 28790 Kendallwood, Farmington Hills, spokesman for the group. "Prices are very reasonable, ranging from five cents to several dollars."

The books are separated into groups, according to subject matter. Some of the new categories this year are, Ecology, Inside John Gunther, and Old and Precious.

There is also a group of first editions and autographed books, as well as collectibles, which are sets or parts of sets.

There is also a wide range of texts for sale, technical books, children's books, gift books and some current novels.

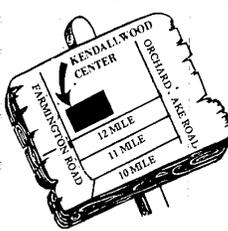

Cochairmen for the event are Nancy Davis and Barbara Medwedoff who are working with Perle Briggs, and Betty Ritchie.

Proceeds from the sale will be donated to the National AAUW Fellowship Fund, which provides financial aid to women who are studying at the doctoral and post-doctoral level.

A. J. Gervais Furs

DUTY AND TAX REFUNDED

39th AUGUST FUR SALE

REDUCTIONS OF 10% to 50%

Mr. Gervais' garments have the custom made look because they are custom made on our premises. Our prices are much lower due to the fact our skins are purchased at the auction level. Our skilled labor is also much lower. Say nothing of Mr. Gervais' creative ability to design fashion furs. Gervais has always over 100 mink coats to choose from.

Canadian Fisher at its very best. The price of $5000 is only possible due to the fact Mr. Gervais bought these pelts at the Hudson's Bay Auction eliminating the skin dealer and manufacturer.

YOUR U.S. DOLLAR AT PAR
Large selection of muskrat coats from $395. An unusual collection of mink, fox and gowls combined with leather priced from $495. Very interesting collection of fully let-out postal mink coats $1295.
