Registration is now underway at the Birmingham Ice Arena for classes beginning the week of Sept.

Classes include beginning school figures, figure skating, U.S.F.S.A. basic skills program, boy's power skating, adult beginners, freestyle, and done and dance.

Further information is available by calling 645-0732, or at the arena to register.

a Virgo or a Leo, we have them all. Beautiful cut-out Zodiac symbols centered on a 1½° symbols centered on a 19 domed gendant, With 24" cha All sterling silver . . . $22.50

jeorge Ohrenstein Jewelers
Graduate Gemologists—
Certified Horologist
|
dsmiths Precision Watche

HARVARD ROW MALL

Schools sponsor lecture series

By BARBARA UNDERWOOD

BIRMINGHAM — A mini-town hall series featuring eight programs will be offered during the fall by the continuing education department of Birmingham Schools.

BIRMINGHAM — A mini-town huntles, program will last about 90 minutes, program will last a

The "Ladies' Day Out" programs will be offered at 10 a m, on eight Thursdays starting Oct. 3 at the board room in the administration building, 550 W. Merrill, Eirming-and 31; Nov. 7, 14 and 21, and Dec. 5. Each program will last about 90

Moreus — How to Make It."
 A plant happening with Deborah Brackenbury and Mary Lou Mirek of the Sunshine Co. who will bring 20 to 30 plants to discuss and then seil.

 Detective Richard Chambers of the Birmingham Police, speak-Subsequent dates are Oct. 10, 24 ing on "A Woman Should Know

How to Protect Herself," a slide presentation and discussion.

• "Fad versus Fashion — How to Buy Smart, "demonstration and advice by Barbara MacIntosh of Affiliated Models.

• "The Perfect Trip — How to Spend Travel Dollars Wisely," by Michael Jacobson of Town Travel, discussing trips from $100 to $2,000.

• "Women's Role in a Changing Society" by a representative of the Oakland University Continuum Center.

The remaining programs will

Exhibits, lecture at 'Focus: Change'

Woodward Avenue in the Cul-tural Center will be closed and dec-orated with shrubbery and torches as the Detroit Institute of Arts and the Detroit Public Library join forces for an evening gala Wednesforces for an evening gala Wednesday.

The public may attend two special exhibitions, hear a lecture and attend a symposium from 7:30 p.m. until 10 p.m. on the general subject "Focus: Change." The event is made possible by Winkleman's for the fourth successive year.

PHIL GRAM

The BIG BAND SOUND is hare! Music II ell Directed

CALL (313) 422-5732

$AVE $2.00 on 100 ALLBEE WITH C CAPSULES Reg. $5.89-WITH COUPON ONLY $3.89

CAPITOL DRUGS

PRESCRIPTIONS
We Want To Be Your Family Drugstore
NORTHWESTERN AT 12 MILE

ORCHESTRA AND COMBO

Judge George C. Edwards will start the program with a talk on the Detroit Institute of Arts leethis new book, "Pioneer-act-Law." This is a thiography of his father, George C, Edwards ST,, who fought for lehanges in law and society in the early years of this century.

The author, a former Detroit police commissioner and now circuit judge, U. S. Court of Appeals, will speak at 7:30 p.m. in the Friends Auditorium of the Main Library.

Peace center

Peace center

The author, a former Detroit police commissioner and now circuit judge, U. S. Court of Appeals, will speak at 7:30 p.m. in the string a key period in modern art, and the symposium, are attist Boyd Mefferd of St. Louis and New York, who utilizes actural and synthetic light in schurers and refreshments. Library.

Peace center

The author, a former Detroit police commissioner and now circuit judge, U. S. Court of Appeals, will speak at 7:30 p.m. in the tory of Art, University of Michigan, Dr. Diane club for the proposition of the Main Library.

Peace center

Reace center

The author, a former Detroit police commissioner and now circuit judge, U. S. Court of Appeals, will speak at 7:30 p.m. in the tory of Art, University of Michigan, Dr. Diane club for the strip of the proposition and surface and refreshments at the museum, are open to the public without charge. Free the commissioner and proposition are striped to the proposition and surface and refreshments at the museum, are open to the public without charge. Free the public without charge. Free the public without charge the art institute the century and proposition and the symposium are detected frice.

to broadcast

"Military Spending — Its Impact on Inflation and the Econom": is the subject of a Channel 56 program at 11 p.m. Thursday (Sept. 19) Prepared by the Peace and National Priorities Center of Oakland County, the program is a part of the "It's Your Turn" series.

part of the "It's Your Turn" series.

Musical opening and closing will be performed by Geri Lester of Franklin and Beth Jones of West Bloomfield. Other local participants are R. B. Angell, Birmingham, Judy Cumbee, Lake Orion; Gerry McKabb, Orchard Lake; and Ralph Stallard, Rochester.

Special guest Marion Anderson will duscuss findings in her recent study on unemployment, "The Empty Pork Barrel." For further information call Mrs. McNabb, 682-4061.

Christmas shops open at museum

The seasonal Christmas Gallery troduced this season, reproducting full color works from the permatuscum Shops has opened its doors.

International, national and local sources have been explored to assemble 'finds' in every holidar shopping category, from greeting cards to untusual personal and honderline to the Christmas Gallery light so the Christmas of the Christmas Gallery light so the Christmas of the Christmas from the Metropolitan Misseum Gallery light so the Christmas of the Christmas and Misseum Shop forduced by Italian-born architect and designer Paolo Soleri's kinetic engagement calendar for 1975 produced by The Museum of Modern Art, New York — a transparent hourglass complete with shifting sand on the cover.

MICHIGAN ARTISTS are the source of one-of-a-kind toys, jewelry and ceramics. Wooden toys for youngesters or adult follectors.

ALL THE SHOPS are open.

ing sand on the cover.

MICHIGAN ARTISTS are the source of one-of-a-kind toys, jewelry and ceramics. Wooden toys for youngsters or adult collectors are crafted by George Landino of Birmingham.

Exotic brass and bead necklaces are created by Mary Solaka who finds material and inspiration on her travels in Middle Eastern countries.

Marie Woo and Jan Sadowski, both of Birmingham, and Joan David are signatures on ceramics.

Continuing import favorites grediejate Russian lacquer boxes and colorful woven baskets from Africa and Central America.

CHRISTMAS wrappings, decorations for tree and table and small stocking stuffers add to the variety

Four new greeting cards are in-

Real estate courses set

Persons who wish to learn about the real estate business or to prethe real estate business or to pre-pare to take the state realty lien-sing examination for salespeople can now do so through a new home study 10-lesson course offered by Oakland University's Division of Continuing Education.

The course, Introduction to Real Estate, is an independent study translation of the first of the eight courses in the university's real estate diploma program. Upon successful completion, a course completion form will be awarded.

Course tuition of $100 includes text and supplement, all other course materials, postage stamps and 3 nailing envelopes.

ALL THE SHOPS are open Tuesday through Sunday, 9:30 am, 16.530 pm. They are operated as a service of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts for the general public. Special diff wrapping and mailing may be arranged. The Museum Shops accept Masterbarge and BarkAmericard. Founders Society members receive a 10 percent discount on all purchases over 85.

202 E. Maple, Birmingham 645-1729

311 E. Liberty, Ann Arbor 761-0062

DUFFY: An autobiography by Buffy Daugherty Introduction by Howard Cosell No. Duffy Daugherty was head football coach of Michigan State University for 15 years. DUFFY is his candid, controversial and hilariously humorous story. This is a fonny, funny, fun PHY OF DUFFY DAUGHERTY

each copy autograph

people 851-9150 ORCHARD MALL

Orchard Lake Rd. North of Maple

Open Thurs, & Fri. til 9

CONVENIENT EXTENDED TERMS