Heeney-Sundquist FUNERAL HOME

Dear Friends,

In addition to the very exacting demands of the art of embalming, the professional services of the funeral director are of major importance. He must be a competent executive and administrator, able to handle all situations and extreme mental and emotional chaos. He must always be sympathetic, understanding, capable and thorough, to resolve any confused situation into one of calm and reassurance.

Respectfully,
Shatter P. Sundquist

Jobs increase for engineers

"Boom times" for engineering graduates may well be ahead, according to Prof. John Young of the U. of M. College of Engineering placement service. "Only a major economic reversal could deter the even greater (than in 1973-74) placement opportunities engineering graduates can expect next year," he said. Starting salaries and the volume

Street bond sale completed

FARMINGTON — Metropolitan Bank of Farmington bid on approximately $70,000 in bonds to finance a paving project on Power Rd. and Prospect St. The offer came after no bids on the 6 1/2 per cent tax-free bonds were received when they were first advertised two weeks ago. The bonds financed the remaining cost of the paving of the two streets, part of the local street improvement program completed this summer. Paved are Power Rd. south of Grand River, and Prospect along-side Farmington High.
