MICHIGAN ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDREN WITH LEARNING DISABILITIES Farmington Chapter, will meet Thursday (Sept. 26) at 8 p.m. in East Junior High School, 25000 Middlebelt Rd., Farmington.

Graham Lewis, special education director for the Farmington Schools, with Douglas Smith and Fred Parker, supervisors, will lead a panel discussion of special education facilities and services in the schools. Emphasis will be on facilities for those with learning disabilities.

The chapter is hosting these guests at this time in view of the recent millage defeat.

FARMINGTON MUSICALS will celebrate United Nations Day with a dinner for guests on Wednesday. The event will be held in the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington, 26165 Farmington Rd., scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m.

In keeping with the ethnic theme for United Nations Day (Oct. 23) the event will be called Oktoberfest. Husbands and guests are invited to join in a festival of foods from around the world prepared by Musicals members.

The program will include an "Around the World Singalong" with Mrs. Donald McEachin as "tour guide." Mrs. Neil McCallum is her accompanist.

A French horn ensemble will also perform. The group consists of seven music majors from University of Michigan. Their director, Louis J. Stout, professor of French horn at the university, will perform with them.

Mrs. Robert Williams is program chairman for Oktoberfest. Dinner chairman is Mrs. Paul Hennis. Mrs. James Skillman will provide piano music as guests arrive and Mrs. Donald Crook will give the invocation.

The musicale is affiliated with the National Federation of Music Clubs.

THE FARMINGTON WOMAN'S CLUB will begin its season with a meeting in the home of Mary Legg, 21504 Whittington, Farmington, on Wednesday, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Guest speaker for the afternoon is V. O. Bates, who will speak on historical markers.

Mable Checketts is program chairman.

THE 50 AND UP CLUB in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church, Power and Shilwassee Road, Farmington, Mass is said at 11:30 a.m. Guests are asked to bring a sandwich for lunch. Coffee and dessert are provided by the host group. All club activities are non-denominational.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA WOMEN'S CLUB will open its 1974-75 season Oct. 4, at 12:15 p.m. with a luncheon meeting in the home of Mrs. Raymond Boaks, 17279 Roxbury, Southfield. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Everett Wright, Mrs. Howard Baer, Mrs. Nicholas Kenjosi and Mrs. Clarence Humphries.

The guest speaker will be Mrs. Edward W. Williams whose subject will be "You in the Life of Books."

Club members are planning to attend the Minnesota-Michigan "Little Brown Jug" football game Oct. 26 in Ann Arbor. Charter buses will leave from the Dearborn Country Club at 10:30 a.m. and return there after the game for a dinner dance.

All University of Minnesota alumni are invited to attend either of these events and may obtain membership information by calling the president of the group, Mrs. Royal Hayden, Jr. of Franklin, 626-6250.

NEW HORIZONS WOMEN'S AUXILIARY will hold its first monthly meeting of the fall season in the home of Mrs. Robert Miller of Ferndale, at 12:30 p.m. Oct. 10.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Mandell Lansky and Mrs. Harold C. Butler.

Guest speaker for the afternoon will be an American Airlines hostess who will give tips on how to pack luggage.

New Horizons is a non-profit organization offering vocational training and employment opportunity for the physically and mentally handicapped. The main office and workshop is in Pontiac. Branches are in Madison Heights and Farmington.

The purpose of the auxiliary is to promote the interests of New Horizons of Oakland County by raising funds for financial aid, assisting and promoting social programs for employees and educating the public in the work and needs of the sheltered workshop.

Persons interested in learning more about New Horizons, or who wish to attend this auxiliary meeting may phone the president, Mrs. Charles Deuel, 646-4376; Mrs. Robert Miller, 546-3764; or Mrs. Harold Butler, 556-1992.

All club news and announcements for this column are to be addressed to: Club Circuit, Box 69, Southfield, 48075, and must arrive on the Monday prior to Thursday publication.
