

Testimonial set for Rabbi Halpern

A silver anniversary testimonial dinner will be tendered Rabbi Israel Halpern Sunday evening, Oct. 13 at Beth Abraham-Hillel, Birmingham.

The dinner is part of a weekend of activity commemorating his service to the congregation for the past 25 years.

Rabbi Halpern, who came to the Beth Abraham pulpit in 1949, served pulpits in Canada and Massachusetts and as a chaplain in the Canadian Army during World War II.

He was ordained from Yeshiva University in New York and received a master's degree in sociology from the University of Detroit.

HE IS A member of the Rabbinical Council of America and the National Youth Commission, and a past chairman of its Michigan region.

He serves on the counseling staff at Lawrence Institute of Technology and on the boards of Yeshiva Beth Yehudah and Akiva Hebrew Day School.

Dr. Robert Schlaff, past president of Beth Abraham-Hillel and Nelson Dembs, treasurer, are co-chairmen of this event.

During his tenure at Beth Abraham-Hillel, the rabbi founded the congregation's religious schools, its men's club and women's club.

For dinner reservations call the synagogue office at 851-6880.

'Summer Wind' by Fleur Cowles will be one of the many pieces in her one-woman show at the Cranbrook Art Academy

Event fetes artist

When the Fleur Cowles exhibit opens at Cranbrook Oct. 12, it won't be an ordinary affair. Rather, the Cranbrook Women's Association, chaired by Mrs. Donald E. Young, has planned a gala dinner event, "An Evening with Fleur Cowles," to honor the renowned artist.

Of course, "An Evening with Fleur Cowles" wouldn't be unless Ms. Cowles were on hand. And she will be, greeting friends from abroad and across the country, as well as Cranbrook supporters.

Ms. Cowles also will donate one-third of the sale of her paintings to the art academy.

The event, a fund-raiser for the academy, is being headed by Mrs. William T. Gosset and Mrs. Ernest Jones. Mrs. Henry C. Johnson and Mrs. R. Jamison Williams are vice-chairmen.

The cost of the evening has been underwritten by more than 80 friends and sponsors of the academy. Included in the list are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Brech, Mr. and Mrs. W. Kent Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Eliot M. Estes, Olivia de Havilland and many more.

Minnesota women meet

The University of Minnesota Women's Club will open its 1974-75 season 12:15 p.m. Friday, Oct. 4 with a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Raymond Boaks, 17279 Roxbury, Southfield.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Everett Wright, Mrs. Howard Baer, Mrs. Nicholas Kenjosi and Mrs. Clarence Humphries.

The guest speaker will be Mrs. Edward W. Williams whose subject will be, "You in the Life of Books". Club members are also planning to attend the Minnesota-Michigan "Little Brown Jug" football game Oct. 26 in Ann Arbor. Charter buses will leave from the Dearborn Country Club at 10:30 a.m., and return there after the game for a dinner-dance.

All University of Minnesota alumni are invited to attend either of these events and may obtain further information by calling club president, Mrs. Royal C. Hayden, Jr. of Franklin, 626-6250 or Mrs. John McDonnell of Dearborn, 542-8093.

REACT plans October meet

Oakland County REACT will hold a general membership meeting at 6 p.m. Oct. 6 in the Emergency Operations Center of Oakland County Disaster Control and Civil Defense.

The all-volunteer non-profit organization cooperates with local authorities and is prepared to provide them with supplemental communications during emergencies.

The group also assists with parades and civic events, and provides "Wake-Break" coffee stops on Interstate 75 over long holiday weekends.

The center is located in the Oakland County Law Enforcement Complex, on Telegraph Road north of the Pontiac Mall Shopping Center.

Meetings are open to the public and all persons are welcome.

Hospital auxiliary sets fall meeting

The Women's Auxiliary to the Grace Hospitals will hold its first fall meeting at 11:45 a.m. Tuesday in Meadow Brook Hall at Oakland University. A tour of Meadow Brook will follow a luncheon.

If there's a Wedding in your future...

Call the William Wagon hostess.

She will have lovely gifts and helpful information for the bride and groom-to-be.
