TIARA II: A GREAT NEW COLLECTION IS BORN.

Meet a brand new collection at Stewart-Glenn . . . with an ageless styling you'll always be proud to own. Its called Tiara II, and it includes a versatile range of furniture for bedroom and dining room, as well as several occasional pieces for use in any room.

Its creation was inspired by the best classic designs of eighteenth century Europe. And because of its informal elegant styling it mixes well with other furniture styles from antique to modern.

Depending on the fabrics, colors, and accessories you choose you can produce a room that's completely traditional and dignified or one that's exciting and eclectic. Tiara II is that versatile. Its finishes range from lustrous natural wood to delicate hand painted finishes to gold metal leaf on certain pieces. Superb materials is the reason — solid andiroba, solid cherry, selected walnut veneers — and a great deal of handwork.

This group is crafted by White of Mebane and we at Stewart-Glenn are proud to show it.
