Eastern Star marks 75 years

Farmington Chapter #239 Order of the Eastern Star celebrated its 75th birthday in September with a dinner in the Glen Oaks Country Club.

The local chapter was founded in 1899 with Carrie Northrup acting as the first Matron and Caleb Sprague as the first Patron.

New life memberships were given by Shirley Terrill, Worthy Matron, and Charles Terrill, Worthy Patron, to Revela Hupert and Jessie Smith.

Members saluted their chapter's oldest living Matron, Ada Bond, who served 73 years ago and now resides in the Franklin Manor Nursing Home. Honored guests for the evening were the Everett-Marple Grand Family, a total of 24 Past Matrons, three Past Patrons and a number of life and honorary members.

The evening began with a reception for Charles Valerius, a Grand Committeeman on the Eastar Vesper Committee for the Everett-Marple Grand Family.

Viola Gildemeister, who was Matron 47 years ago, cut the birthday cake for the 375 guests.
