

Group back at Helen's

Shiloh Morning, one of the most popular groups that Dirty Helen's has presented in recent months, is back for a limited two-week engagement, through Nov. 2.

This is a group that blends vocal and instrumental talents together. They do contemporary hits including songs by the Carpenters, Neil Diamond, the Beach Boys, Anne Murray, the Lettermen.

Shiloh Morning has appeared in concert with Harry Chapin, James Taylor, the Carpenters and the Beach Boys.

For further information or regarding an interview, contact George Goulson at 962-2300.

Brothers return to play at Ted's

Musical brothers Sev and Ed return to Ted's Old Town Inn at Woodward and Square Lake Road within three months of their previous engagement for an appearance through Saturday.

Sev and Ed, brothers from New York, play a variety of instruments and write some of their own music. They have built a following with their musical mimicry as well as their serious music.

Comic skater Mr. Frick assists show star Janet Lynn.

Skating champ heads Follies

The return of five-time United States Ladies and current World's Professional Champion Janet Lynn highlights the 1975 edition of the Shipsteads and Johnson Ice Follies which opened at Olympia Stadium Wednesday for an engagement through Sunday, Nov. 3.

In her first year as a professional with the Follies last year Janet dazzled and amazed crowds throughout the United States and Canada. Now, in her second tour, "America's Sweetheart," as she has come to be known, will solo twice in the 39th version of the ice extravaganza.

In the first half, Janet will skate to the music of Claude Debussy's "Clair de Lune" and in the final segment of the presentation she joins the finale in skating to "Take Up The Hammer" and "Windflowers."

Also featured in this year's Ice Follies will be a salute to "Mr. Debonaire," Richard Dwyer, as he celebrates his 25th anniversary with the show. For the children, the characters from the popular program "Sesame Street" join the spectacular for their first appearance on ice.

THIS SEASON also marks the 36th year for the durable Swiss comic, Mr. Frick. Joining Frick on the funny side will be Hans Leiter and the Funsters.

Karen Kresge, Susan Berens, Suzanne Russel, Christy Ito and Canadian newcomer Daria Prychun will be the femme stars. Jay Humphrey, Atoy Wilson, Jackie Davis and Kevin Bubb are added male attractions.

Tickets for the Ice Follies are on sale now at the Olympia, Grinnell's Hudson's and Sears. Children (14 and under) and Senior Citizens will be admitted for half price at all performances except Saturday evening (8 p.m.) and the Sunday shows.

Showtime on weeknights is 7:30 p.m. with three shows on Saturdays at noon, 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. and two on Sundays at 2 and 6 p.m. There are no shows scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 29, and Thursday, Oct. 31.

More information can be obtained by calling Olympia at 895-7000. Group arrangements can be made by contacting Donna Martin at that number.
