Late bucket means Jayvictory

Lori Slatin had been spending her time playing on Southfield High's reserve girls baskethall team—until last Thursday. That's when coach sheri Gordan elevated the 5-4 guard to the varsity for Southfield's game at Royal Oak Kimball.

The experiment in upward mobility worked out as Miss Slatin sank the winning basket in Southfield's 35-33 victory over Kimball in the Southeastern Michigan Association game.

"It was a beautiful game." Miss Gordan said. "I think it was the best game my kids have ever played. We played heads-up defense. I had two kids playing a man-to-man, and the rest in a zone. "They (Kimball) had some beautiful shooters and I wanted them stopped."
