Police arrest man for 2 abductions

A 35-year-old Royal Oak man is in the Oakland County Jail on charges stemming from the alleged abduction and acts of indecency with two teenage girls in Beverly Hills and Farmington Hills, according to police reports.

Arresting officers in the Beverly Hills Department of Public Safety and the Farmington Hills Police Department identified the man as Thomas A. Staats of 213 California in Royal Oak.

Staats pleaded not guilty before Southfield's 16th District Court Judge Norman Feder to charges of assault with intent to rape and of assault with intent to commit gross indecencies.

Judge Feder set $2,500 bond on each charge.

STAATS ALSO pleaded not guilty to an indecent liberties charge by Farmington Hills Police before Judge Michael Hand in Farmington's 47th District Court. Judge Hand set a $5,000 cash bond on the charge.

Staats remains in the county jail, in lieu of bond, and faces pre-trial hearings on Nov. 8 in Farmington Hills and on Nov. 12 in Southfield.

The Beverly Hills charges, according to public safety officers, stem from Oct. 9 when Staats allegedly forced a 12-year-old Ferndale girl into his car, drove her to two locations in Beverly Hills and Southfield and assaulted her, and then let her go near her home.

Farmington Hills police have charged Staats with abducting a 13-year-old, driving her to the Twelve Mile-Drake area and taking indecent liberties before returning her to her home.

Both of the girls were picked up in Ferndale, police said.
