You must keep up with changes in Social Security benefit laws, because these changes occur quite often. Social Security "survivor" benefits have a substantial value, and are an important part of resources which are available to your family. But often, it turns out, people have an inflated idea of just what Social Security does provide in the way of insurance of all types. The best idea is to call or visit your local Social Security office — they will be able to furnish you with pertinent data.

To get a full idea of what benefits are available to you and what you can add through insurance plans, stop in at the office of BERGSTROM INSURANCE, 32300 Grand River, Farmington Hills, and talk with our insurance specialists. We are trained in personal life insurance and can help you with retirement plans, mortgage redemption plans, educational savings or whatever your needs. We also handle automobile, homeowners, recreational vehicle and personal life insurance. For more information, call us today at 478-1880. We are open weekdays from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. even times by appointment.

INSURANCE FACT. An insurance agent is usually appointed by an insurance company, but licensed by the State Insurance Commission.

Despite a general sweep for the Democratic Party statewide, Farmington-area stayed firmly in the Republican column.

Votes cast for state board education candidates, generally regarded as a measure of the ratio of party registrations, had Republicans winning about 65 per cent of the totals.

Area voters favored incumbent Republican Governor William Milliken over Democrat Sander Levin by about 9,000 votes in a total turnout of almost 21,000. Farmington went for Milliken 3,566-1,015. Farmington Hills voters cast 11,150 ballots for Milliken to 4,618 for Levin.

The Farmington area was about the only bright spot for Republicans in the 17th Congressional district contest. William Broadhead, a Democrat who replaces Congresswoman Martha Griffiths, swept the rest of the 17th district but Republican Kenneth Gal-agher won in both Farmington and Farmington Hills.

GALLAGHER led 7,125 to 7,031 in Farmington and 2,055 to 1,819 in Farmington Hills.

State Sen. Daniel Cooper, whose district includes the Farmington area, trailed Farmington resident Lee Coppock in both cities, but carried the district by a 2-1 margin.

Democrat Cooper had 1,459 votes in Farmington and 6,285 in Farmington Hills. Coppock won 2,272 and 7,648 votes in the two cities.

In the 6th state representative district, which includes all of the Farmington area, Wilbur "Sandy" Brotherton won by 5,000 votes over Democrat John Campbell. Both are residents of Farmington.

Brotherton carried Farmington Hills by 9,149-5,079 and the City of Farmington by 2,996-1,084 margins.

The four county commission districts which include parts of the Farmington area all went to Republicans. John McDonald had 5,432 votes to 2,397 for Democrat Gerald E. Burrell in the 27th district, which is dominated by Farmington area votes.

Pat Nowak won reelection from the 28th district over Sheldon Toll by a 6,024-1,109 count. Both men live in Farmington Hills.

Lillian Moffitt won the Farmington Hills part of the 15th county commission district by 2,190-1,344 over Democrat Linda Hirschberg. District-wide, Moffitt won by 2,700 votes.

Republican Lew Coy had a 800 vote lead (1,529-854) in the Farmington Hills part of the 24th district. He defeated Democrat William D'Brien 5,535-4,612.

VETERAN Farmington Hills politician Margaret Schaeffer won a 2,540 vote victory for a new judges' term in the 47th district court. Mrs. Schaeffer beat newcomer Judith Holtz 9,328-5,614 in Farmington Hills and 2,255-1,202 in Farmington in the contest that generated the most local interest.

Results in the Schaeffer-Holtz contest were the only ones Farmington Hills officials bothered to post election night.

Both Farmington and Farmington Hills voters followed similar balloting patterns in the four state issues. Proposal C, which would have removed sales taxes on most food and drugs, lost statewide but totals were close in both cities.

Brasings a beef — cooking a roast in its own juices with stock or wine, in a covered casserole in the oven takes time, which serves to tenderize the tough, range-fed beef. If some countries, it also turns a secondary cut of meat, such as chuck, into a main dish that will impress and please any dinner party. In England and in the United States, cooks often bring the roast to the table as the center of attention and serve the vegetables separately. But the French present the meat on the same platter with the vegetables that have been cooked with it. Next time — braise beef "the French way."

The next time you want to have a different party, have a wine tasting evening with the help of the experts at BOSCO'S DELI & WINE SHOP, 12900 Orchard Lake Rd. at 12 Mile, downstairs from the Roman Terrace, 851-4540. We have 872 different types of wines and champagnes. We will receive wines, cheeses, bread and even supply evaluation sheets. Gifts for special occasions are available from us — baskets include a variety of wines, fresh fruit (in season) and snack items. Hours: Daily 10 a.m. - 9 p.m., until 10 p.m. Fri-Sat, Noon-8 p.m. Sundays.

INSULATE
Save on your heating bill

NOW, MORE THAN EVER IT'S IMPORTANT THAT YOU HAVE ADEQUATE INSULATION.

The greatest heat loss is through your roof. So one of the best ways you can help conserve natural gas (and save money, too) is to make sure you have at least six inches of high quality insulation in the attic of your home.

We have a free booklet with answers to questions about home insulation. Stop by and pick one up. Then talk to your insulating contractor, or to us, about installing insulation. We can recommend qualified contractors...we can even arrange financing for you. It's all part of a Michigan Public Service Commission program to help conserve scarce energy.
