This bib-draped necklace from the Hobe Dernier Cri collection is fashioned from geometric rectangles with an inner mirror surface on one side and pure black jet on the other.

Hammered gold frames genuine agates, aventurine and jade in this pendant, ring and bracelet by Hobe.

Holiday jewelry
makes area debut

The Hobe Le Dernier Cri holiday-resort jewelry collection made its debut at the Birmingham Jacobson store this week.

The collection consists of the textured pieces, made of intricately woven bands of gold and silver; the Egyptian pieces, showing Queen Nefertiti in bas relief, and the baroque art deco group of necklaces and bracelets.

Hobe's gold and bronze 'grand collier' is made in 5 intricately joined sections, as is the companion bracelet.
