

JAMES SIMMONS

Banker to speak to the Chamber

FARMINGTON—James M. Simmons, investment officer of Detroit Bank and Trust, will speak at the Farmington Chamber of Commerce breakfast at 8 a.m. Dec. 5 at the Balford Inn. Simmons will discuss "Business and the Consumer -- A Matter of Education." Reservations are open to members, guests and interested persons. For further information, call 474-3440.

Family weekend planned

The Jewish Community Center's Seventh Annual Family Dance Weekend will take place from Friday, Nov. 29, to Sunday, Dec. 1 at Camp Tamarack, Ortonville. Family Dance Weekend is devoted to seeing, learning and participating in dance.

It is designed so that all skill levels from the most inexperienced to the most experienced can learn and profit from the weekend.

Also planned are family activities like exploring the countryside, hikes, games and evening campfires.

GINGI BEN-ZEEV, folk dancer and instructor, heads an impressive list of guest instructors.

Appearing with him will be "The Israeli Ensemble."

Award-winning dancer Ben Dolphin will also be on hand to teach contemporary dance.

Erica Herman, Shelly Halper and center dance coordinator Harriet Berg are among the other guest artists who will be present.

To register or for information call the center educational services office at 545-6780.
