transacy, and to an appearances wint continue. Executive Director John Carlo's sait against Racing Commissioner Leo Shriey, to regain summer racing dates instead of the SI winter nights afford to Northville Downs last October, will come up for hearing Friday morning before Appeals Court Judge, Originally the matter was to have been disposed of last Friday. But after a few opening remaints by after a few opening remaints by attempts, the case was delayed for a week for further hearing.

week for further hearing.

Judge Foley, a resident of Plymouth and thus one who knows a bit about harness racing, has indicated he will study the briefs during the interim period and probably make a decision after hearing additional arguments from the two sides. It will be interesting to see what happens since all of the tracks have started plans for 1978 with Worverine and Hazel Parts already scheduled for Grand Circuit meetings which cannot be changed. He the three is a possibility that both tracks will lose their Roaring Grand Circuit on the changed. He have been successful authority to make and allot dates as he sees fit and they can't be changed.

Now we are into the new year, and despite a legal fight hanging over its beed, harmers render gararted 1975 as scheduled at Northville Downs the continue.

Carlo, in turn, makes it clear the exceeding the continue of the c his track still receive summer dates. That's where the rub comes. Shriley denies any such promises, and as far as we know there aren't any such communications in writing. The fact remains that Shriley, in his role of ezer of racing, did deny North-to we communications in which stairley, in his role of care of racing, did deny North-ville Downs any summer dates. Now it will be up to the court to make a decision. If it goes against the commissioner we'll be very much surprised.

IN THE MEANTIME, Carlo went absed with plans for 1975 after receiv-ing an opinion from his lawyer that it wouldn't jeopardize the court decision.

Racing Secretary Harry Peterson checked in from Florida last week and made the draw for Wednesday's opening program on Saturday. The remainder of the staff will be much the same as that which ended Northville's

You can bet that if Carlo loses this round, he'll still be in there fighting and doing everything possible to have the Legislature assure his track of summer dates in another year.
