VanParys-Sampson

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil J. VanParys Jr. of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen M., to Roderick A. Sampson, son of Mrs. Donna Sampson of Sumner and Rod Sampson of Rose City.

Miss VanParys is a junior at Hurley Hospital school of nursing. Both Miss VanParys and her fiancé were graduated from John Glenn High School in Bay City.

Sampson is a Sergeant in the U.S. Air Force.

No wedding date has been set.

Mrs. Thomas Balone

Debra Lynn Beebe and Thomas Anthony Balone were married Nov. 29 in Grace Lutheran Church by Pastor V. Frederick Halboth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alger Beebe of Ann Arbor. Her husband is the son of Mr. Thomas J. Balone of Farmington and Mrs. Joyce Spicer of Livonia.

The bride wore an ivory satin gown, Victorian style, with a low round neck and a lace bodice. She carried a Williamsburg bouquet of white orchids, roses, stephanotis, baby's-breath and queen's lace.

A reception was held for the couple at Zai Gaz Grotto in Ann Arbor.

Reigner receives WMU scholarship

FARMINGTON—Beth Reigner of Farmington, a Western Michigan University junior, received the Pugno Scholarship for the 1974-75 school year.

Ms. Reigner is a 1972 graduate of Farmington High School.

College of Business to an outstanding student in their curriculum, provides for Ms. Reigner's tuition.

She is a member of Pi Omega Pi, national honorary in business education, and has been on the university's dean's list for four semesters.

Ms. Reigner is majoring in secretarial administration.

The award, presented by WMU's College of Business to an outstanding student in their curriculum, provides for Ms. Reigner's tuition.

"This is a writing course, not a bloodbath," Hancock says, "but students should enjoy themselves when they write. It's their writing that's important. If they can produce essays on vampirism or hockey moves with relish, that's better than writing about the International Monetary Fund with out enthusiasm."

The instructor of the horror course, Assistant Professor Ted Hancock, says the unusual teaching media has been chosen "to make composition fun."
