

Health and Safety Seminar offered

SOUTHFIELD—A free Occupational Safety and Health Course will be sponsored by the Southfield Chamber of Commerce at 8:45 a.m. on Jan. 8 at the Michigan Inn on J.L. Hudson Drive.

The course, entitled "MOSH-OSHA Seminar", has the purpose of spreading information on the New Michigan Occupational Safety and Health Act, which became effective Jan. 1.

Employers, employees, and their representatives from the business, industrial and public government sectors may attend.

For advance registrations or additional information, call 356-0400, or 356-0882.

Collegeless careers examined Jan. 27

FARMINGTON—The Parents' Club of North Farmington High School will host a district-wide conference on careers without benefit of four years in college at 8:30 p.m. Jan. 27 in the school's auditorium.

Included will be non-academic and technical careers, as well as careers after two years of community college.

Obvious request

It's not too difficult to guess what seven-year-old Michelle Bonamy of Southfield asked from the big man in the red suit. Except in this case, Michelle may have wanted more than the traditional two front teeth. At any rate, she'll have to wait a while. (Photographed by Barbara McClellan)
