THE SHOP opened two and one-half years ago in a 16 by 36 foot speec. Less than a morth later, plans were made for expansion, a wall was knocked out and the shop overflowed into an adjacent empty store. Less summer, the shop was once again expanded. When the shop opened, it had been seen years since the last yarm shop in the city had closed. "Of course, you don't just open a yarm shop You go into the needle arts." Mrs. Nymshack said. The family did Just that. They jumped feet first into a full line of supplies which Mrs. Nymshack said. They family did Just that.
