"Political conventions are just about the most exerting assignment you can get," said Mr. Whitlock, "It is very empore and more interested in them. More people are reconciling that delegates to a convention are deciding a very important matter; who will be leading the object of the next form years.

For Mr. Whitlock this assignment appeals to his deposed in history at Brown University, where he was graduated in 1954. "Reading history as recorded in a book is just not as Choose Tall Men For The Outcasts Don Murray did screen tests with all the Negro actors who were trying out for the co-star-ing role in The Outcasts.

Several prominent actors were ruled out because they had to be at least 6-foot tall, Murray is 5-2. Otts Young, who got the part, is the same height.

"I liked him from the start,"
Murray said, "There was none

Roundabout Return Planned

The Rogues, that well-re-membered TV series with David Niven, Charles Boyer and Gig

Niven, Charles Boyer and Gig Young was seceptionally popular in Europe, and there is a remote chance that it may re-turn to American TV, in the most roundabout way. Iran Goff and Ben Roberts created and produced the sories, When theylef Four Star Skutlos, where the series was produced, they sold the story rights to the studio, but re-tained the rights to the charac-tors.

Now Four Star intends to make a movie of the plot and Goff and Roberts say there is a possibility the movie will selve as a pilot for the series to return.
