Volunteers

This column describing volunteer needs in Oakland County is co-sponsored by the Junior League of Birmingham and the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau.

Inquiries regarding volunteer needs listed here should be made to the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau at 642-7272. Requests for volunteers listings should also be made through the volunteer bureau.

Poison Control Center. Children's Hospital, Detroit. Volunteers are needed in the center's community education department to give slide presentations to civic, business and school groups. Talks are scheduled at the request of organizations and at the convenience of the volunteer. A one-day training session is provided. A narration is provided for the slides and the volunteer is familiarized with the materials presented. Most presentations are scheduled from September through June.

Oakland Community College Center for Substance Abuse. 2900 Featherstone Road, Auburn Heights, is a structured self-help program for adolescents and adults with problems in substance abuse. Volunteers are needed as caseworkers which involves court referrals and other liaison work.

counseling; fund raising and administrative duties. Counselors serve one-year apprenticeship after training and work a minimum of three hours per week. Orientation and training are provided.

Retired businessmen with experience in small business are particularly needed.

Medicenters. Southfield, corner of Greenfield and Nine Mile Road is an extended care facility providing both nursing home type care and recuperative care. Volunteers are needed for activity programs including playing the piano, singing, bingo and other table games. Volunteers with special handicraft skills are particularly needed. Individuals or groups are also needed to help with parties and other special events. Hours are late morning or mid-afternoon.

Louisa DAR to celebrate

The Louisa St. Clair Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) will celebrate its 22nd birthday at noon, Saturday, at the Detroit Golf Club.

State historian Mrs. Marvin R. Putnam of Grosse Pointe will speak on "A Man of Many Talents—Benjamin Franklin."

Mrs. Bruce R. Mayhew, regent of Louisa, will preside at the meeting. Honored guests will include Mrs. Orvis L. Henke of Farmington, treasurer and Mrs. Stuart D. Holland of Birmingham, historian. Both are members of the Michigan DAR State Board.

Other area guests include Mrs. B. F. Sheets, Ezra Parker Chapter; Mrs. K. Walker, Fort Pontchartrain, and Mrs. Erwin E. Darling, Piety Hill. For reservations call Mrs. John Cornell or Mrs. Arthur Bacon.

Oakway group attends tea

About 50 members of the Women's Association for the Oakway Symphony attended a tea Thursday Jan. 9 at the Birmingham home of Mrs. Berj H. Haidostian, symphony board member.

Speaker was Mrs. Thomas V. LoCicero of Grosse Pointe, president of the Michigan Orchestra Women's Association. Entertainment was by Fontayne Laine, pianist.

The symphony will play in concert Jan. 26 with Ani Kavafian, violinist.
