

Dads Club dance benefits Marian

The new year started out with a bleak economic outlook, but for the Marian High Dads Club, everything's turning up great. Staging its first benefit for the Catholic girls school in Birmingham, the Dads Club raised more than $2,000 Friday night at a $100-a-couple dinner dance held in the school gym.

After the decorations committee, headed by Mrs. Robert Reason, finished with the winter wonderland mobiles and ornaments furnished by Saks, the gym became an appropriate setting for the evening party.

Almost everything for the benefit was donated, including the decorations, food, prizes and orchestra.

Proceeds will go for the school's athletic program, an activities bus and various other school needs, according to the school's principal, James Moseley, and members of the Dad's Club, which is in its second year.

Marian students served as hostesses for the beef buffet and some even shared dances with their dads to the music of The Casuals following dinner.

Dads Club members who assisted in planning and staging the benefit were Keith Blake, Pat Norton, Ed Lynch, Vince Sahli, club president, Bob Krue and Bob Temmerman, among others.
