IRS will help with forms

Filling out income tax forms has become the great American hassle. To ease the burden, the Internal Revenue Service has opened an office in Southfield to help you complete your Federal forms. The IRS does not charge for this service.

The Southfield office is located in the seventh floor of the Fidelity Bank Building, 2401 Northwestern Highway (at Ten Mile and Evergreen roads) out of I-695. Help will be available from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday-Friday.

You also may telephone for assistance. The number of the Southfield office is 355-1880. Telephone service is 8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Starting Feb. 3, the IRS will be manning help centers at the Oakland, Livonia and Southland malls 11 a.m. - 7:30 p.m. Monday-Saturday. Help will also be available at locations in downtown Detroit.

Help at all locations will continue until April 15, the filing deadline. An IRS spokesman said service hours probably will be extended into the evening as the deadline nears.

THE IRS mails individual income tax return forms to you if you filed a form last year. If you have not received a form, or if you plan to use a different form than the one you received, most banks in Southfield can supply you with blank forms.

The banks also have Michigan Income Tax forms and instruction booklets. For assistance with your state forms, you may call an office of the Michigan Treasury and Revenue Department in Pontiac. The telephone numbers are 1-335-6102 or 1-335-7200. The phones will be manned with persons to assist you 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. Monday-Friday.

You may also go to the office in person. It is at 2265 South Telegraph Road in the Miracle Mile Shopping Center, Pontiac. There's no charge. The office is also open to assist you 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Every Michigan resident must file a Michigan income tax return regardless of the source of income if his Federal adjusted gross income is more than the personal exemptions allowed.
