AWARDED
Air Force Col. Edward J. Nash, brother of Richard Nash of Troy, was recently awarded the 1974 Harmon Aviator's trophy for his work in directing a massive airlift operation to the Middle East in 1973.

During a span of 30 days, Col. Nash directed hundreds of aircraft missions which delivered more than 27,000 tons of supplies and equipment to help maintain peace in Middle East.

The trophy is awarded annually to the pilot whose accomplishments merit international recognition and who is judged to have contributed the most to the art and science of flight during the year.

Col. Nash entered the Army Air Force in 1943 after graduating from Wilbur Wright High School and was commissioned through the aviation cadet program.

He has since earned B.S. and M.S. degrees from George Washington University and is a graduate of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces.

He is currently commander of the 8th Military Airlift Wing.

He and his wife, Ruth, have two children, Mary Diane and Mike.

COMMISSIONED
George S. Van Doyne Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Van Doyne of Bloomfield Hills, was commissioned an ensign in the Navy upon graduation from the University of Michigan.

As a member of the school's Reserve Officer Training Corps Unit, he also received military instruction while working toward his bachelor's degree in aerospace engineering.

Van Doyne is scheduled to report for flight training at the Naval Air Station in Pensacola, Fla.

He is a 1970 graduate of Andover High School.

ADJUTANT PROGRAM
Army Staff Sergeant Adrian J. LaPrise, son of Mrs. H. Bird of Birmingham, was one of the military personnel working with President Ford's amnesty program at Camp Attibury and Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

PROMOTED
Air Force Cadet Richard L. Post, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Post of Rochester, has been promoted to the cadet grade of sergeant in the Air Force ROTC program at Michigan State University.

Upon completion of his degree and AFROTC training requirements, he will receive a commission as a second lieutenant and enter the Air Force.

He is a 1971 graduate of Rochester High School.

GRADUATES
Airman Steven T. Cortright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Cortright Jr. of Troy, was graduated from the Air Training Command's basic course for electronic specialists at Keesler AFB, Miss.

The airman, who received instruction in communications and electronic systems principles, is remaining at Keesler for advanced training. Airman Cortright is a 1974 graduate of Troy High School.

ASSIGNED
Airman Daniel R. Bushong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Bushong of Troy, has been assigned to Keesler AFB, Miss., after completing Air Force basic training.

During his six weeks at the Air Training Command's Lackland AFB, Tex., he studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

The airman has been assigned to the Technical Training Center at Keesler for specialized training in the armament systems field.

Airman Bushong is a 1974 graduate of Troy High School.

CREWMEMBER
Navy Fireman Patrick J. Riley of Birmingham is a crewmember aboard the destroyer USS William M. Wood which towed an Italian ship to port after its steering system became inoperative in rough seas south of Sicily.

The Wood, which is homeported in Athens, Greece, is part of the U.S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.
