Boaters get lifetime fuel offer

By ROSE WEBER

An offer of free fuel for life brought a lot of laughs and lookers to one exhibitor at the 1975 Greater Michigan Boat Show, but no sales.

"A lot of people have been looking at our sailboats and they like our sign offering free fuel (wind) but its too early yet for many sales," said a salesman opening day.

There were a lot of lookers in all of the booths and a few were obviously seriously comparing makes. But the opening day crush of former years was conspicuously absent.

THE BIGGEST crowds were congregated in front of the bandstand at show times and around the food concessions.

A steady stream of families some with as many as six children in tow paraded up and down the steps leading to the huge pleasure boats.

Groups of two and three men patrolled the floor comparing fishing boats.

From the smallest boat, a Catyak with an 84 inch overall length to the 43 foot Viking Double Cabin there are a lot of boats to see.

The show will continue through Sunday, Feb. 9. Hours are Thursday and Friday from 4 p.m. to 11 p.m.; Saturday, noon to 11 p.m. and Sunday, noon to 9 p.m.
