

Volunteers

This column describing volunteer needs in Oakland County is co-sponsored by the Junior League of Birmingham and the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau.

Inquiries regarding volunteer needs listed here should be made to the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau at 642-7272. Requests for volunteer listings should also be made through the volunteer bureau.

OAKLAND MEDICAL CENTER, 140 Elizabeth Lake Road, Pontiac, a state agency providing general hospital care for the Department of Mental Health needs volunteers to work on eight adult wards as receptionists, messengers, patient escorts, etc. On the job training is provided. Hours are flexible.

TROY HISTORICAL MU-

SEUM, 60 W. Wattles, Troy needs volunteers to act as guides through the Country Store, the Display Room, the Agriculture Room and the Pioneer Room. Included also in the tour is the Caswell House, one of the first homes in Troy. One training session is provided to familiarize the volunteer with the museum. Volunteers work on a rotating basis once a month. The museum is open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

ALEXANDER CONVALESCENT HOME, 718 W. Fourth St., Royal Oak, is a 63-bed nursing home in a residential neighborhood. Volunteers are needed to assist with the patients' activities program such as songfests, bingo games, crafts and special outings. A visit is always welcome too. Training is provided. Hours are flexible.

Scandinavians honor consuls

The Scandinavian Ball of the Year will be held at Southfield's Michigan Inn Great Lakes Ballroom Saturday. Scandinavian debutantes from five national origins will be introduced and perform the grand march with their escorts. Among the debutantes will be Suki Fredricks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Fredricks of Birmingham, and Lisa Lagerkvist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arne Lagerkvist of Bloomfield Hills. Fredricks, noted sculptor, will donate a work of art for the event.

Four Scandinavian consuls from the Detroit area will also be honored. They are Harry Virjo, Finland; William Caswell, Norway; Fredericks, Denmark, and Marvin Anderson, Sweden.

Entertainment will be by the Classical Arts Ballet Company of Birmingham with director, Nancy Whitson. Proceeds will go to the American Scandinavian Foundation Scholarship Fund.

Tickets may be obtained by contacting Ludwig Boraks.
