Harrison's hoop woes continue

Farmington Harrison's basketball team has been on the skids lately, and last Thursday's game at Livonia Franklin didn't improve the situation. Franklin defeated Harrison, 56-52, in the nonleague game. The victory was Franklin's fourth against 10 losses. The loss dropped Harrison to 7-10.

The Patriots led. 27-23, at halfitime, but Harrison rebounded in the second half. The Hawks led by seven early in the fourth quarter before Franklin's man-4o-man press started to take its toll in turnovers.

Dennis Wealey, Franklin's 65 cen-ter, fired in 19 points on field goals and five of six foul shots. Guard Jim Roussean added 11 points, while Don Pederson and Sam Williams each scored eight.

scored II and 10 points respectively. Harrison shot 42 percent from the field (I7-40), while Franklin shot 37 percent (I3-49). Harrison conrebounded Franklin, 33-27, with Mason grabbing II. Harrison plays next on Friday (Feb. 21) at home against North High, the first-place team in the Western Six League. Harrison surprised Northville carrier: this season.
