Culinary skills pleased British royalty

Rene Mouttet, executive chef at the Michigan Inn

By JACKIE KLEIN

How does it feel to please a royal palate with culinary expertise?
"It's an honor and a challenge."
"It's an honor and a challenge."
aid Rene Mouttet, the Swiss-born executive chef at the Michigan Intole in Southfield.
In 1983, Moutte's culinary similaried graced the table of Princess Margaret during her vist to Canada."
I was only six years out of the Ecole Hoteliere in Neuchatel, Switzerland, and had been recruited by the Canadian Pacific chain as a sous or under chef for the Banff Springs Hotel in Alberta." he recalled.
