Fashion know-how shared at center

Irene MacKinnon's name is synonymous with fashion in and around Farmington. She will greet visitors to Farmington Community Center with a mini-fashion show, 'Faces, Figures, and Fashions,' Friday, Mar. 14, at 9:30 a.m.

This show will spotlight fashions that are appropriate for individual figures and faces. Mrs. MacKinnon teaches her students that any pattern can be altered to suit the seamstress once she masters a few secrets.

Continental breakfast will be served, and accessories from the show will be raffled off to winners.

Mrs. MacKinnon has taught sewing at the center from its earliest days and has given a number of benefit fashion shows there. Donations from this show will benefit the center.
