WNFGA meets at Troy Inn

Birmingham Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association (WNFGA) was hostess to the Winter County State Meeting held recently at the Troy Hilton.

More than 200 WNFGA members from throughout the state attended the all-day meeting, chaired by Michigan Division President Mrs. Harry J. Miller.

Theme for the meeting was "Capsule Table Settings" with Mrs. Paul E. Machuga, Michigan Dower show chairman, and Mrs. Van Askounes of Bloomfield Hills, who trains judges on a national level, as instructors.

The meeting began with business, with a break for lunch at tables decorated with clear glass terrariums made by the hosting Birmingham Branch.

In charge of meeting arrangements were Mrs. Richard Pearce, chairman of the day, and Mrs. Russell Gilpin, president of the Birmingham Branch. Mrs. Parker Rockwell of Troy, WNFGA national treasurer, was among national and state officers attending.
