Bach on TV

Those who missed the Bach for a Bach concert at Duns Scotus last December will have a second chance to enjoy the event.

A film tape of the concert in the vaulted main chapel of the college will be shown at 4 p.m. Saturday, March 15, on Channel 36.

The annual Christmas season concert, an outgrowth of Music Workshop in the Woods, started by Ray Benner, Detroit Symphony bassist, have drawn standing room only audiences since their inception.

Along with outstanding student musicians, Benner mixes some top professionals. Detroit Symphony bassoonist Philip Austin and New Orleans Philharmonic trumpeter Paul Randall, the Duns Scotus Chamber Players and the John Dwarak Seniors.

Daniel Majeske, concertmaster of the Cleveland Symphony, is soloist performing the Bach Concerto in A minor and Chaconne from the Partita in D minor.

Teacher arraigned

SOUTHFIELD—Robert Crane, 29, an art teacher at Birney Junior High School, was arraigned last week in 4th District Court on a charge of attempting to obtain a controlled substance by fraud.

He was released on a $1,000 bond pending pre-examination March 12 and examination March 13.

Crane was arrested in Oak Park March 1 along with John Canup Jr., 28, both of 12878 Southfield Road, Detroit.

Oak Park police said the two tried to obtain a controlled substance at a drug store by using a forged prescription.

Canup was arraigned on the same charges and bond set at $1,000.
