Murphy names 3 superdepartment heads

By ROBERT SIPPER

OAKLAND COUNTY—Three county officials have tied their haures with the political fortunes of Oourty Executive Daniel Murphy and agreed to lead a superdepartments crossed Murphy's county reorganization plan. The officials have surrendered the county of the county of agment and Budget.

MILTON W. HANDORF, former director of facilities and operations, was named to heast the Department of Planning and physical development.

Glen M. Dick, former director of contral services, was named to head the Department of social services. The men, who assumed their new duties Monday, will receive $33,000 per year.

With their appointments, more than laff the Murphy seam is in place. Previously, Murphy appointed a deputy searculity and a public information officer. Only three additional super-department heads are still to be named.

SOME OBSERVERS at the county were skeptical that Murphy could convine existing county employes to give up merit system status to take the new positions.

up merit system status to take the new positions. Muprhy's estimate that his reorgan-sation pian Mould cost $100,000 was based on the premise that some coun-try officials would accept the new posts thereby allowing their former po-sitions to be eliminated. Murphy said he expected to abolish one of the abundoned positions and possibly two. Bernans's position on the board of auditors was eliminated along with the board when the county switched to its executive form government. In the past two months
