

Jaycees call for members

The Farmington Area Jaycees are looking for good men between 18-35 who want to get involved," said Fred Madley, spokesman for the group, who announced "Jaycee Membership Night" set for Tuesday, April 8.

Social hour begins at 6:30 p.m. and dinner is set for 7 p.m. in the American Legion Hall on Grand River. Regular meetings of the club are held at the same place on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month.

There is no residency requirement for membership and no reservations are requested for the dinner. "Just show up and we'll take care of you," Madley said.

THE LOCAL chapter signed up 21 new members at its last membership night and the roster now stands at 119.

The club has just completed its annual Easter Egg Hunt this year for Farmington area youngsters which is but one of the community service standing projects on the yearly agenda.

The organization is regularly sponsors a softball league; the Jaycee Rodeo; "Walk for Farmington" for local charities; Haunted House prior to Halloween; the Junior Olympics and a By Rodeo.

INNER-CLUB activities mostly have to do with self-help seminars, courses and classes in leadership, speaking, or such.
