

Perfect game rolled by Farmington woman

By W. W. EDGAR

Barbara Waling, 39-year-old member of the mixed classic, wrote her name indelibly into bowling records Thursday night at Farmington Lanes when she posted a perfect game and a 756 series, the fourth highest ever by a woman in the state.

The 300 game, with which she opened the series, was only the eighth ever bowled by a woman in the Detroit area and came in the most unusual manner.

"She had every ball right in the pocket," Fred Hamlin, owner of Farmington Lanes, explained, "and there was no question about it—she deserved every pin she got."

Not content with the 300 as a starter, Barbara, who carries a 190 average, continued her string of strikes with two in the second game. This gave her a 14 in a row, which is another high mark for the area women.

Although double the pressure got her a little followed by two open frames went on to register a 344. It was evident at this point that she was led for an unusually high series.

The excitement and the knowledge of her opportunity took its toll in the third game where she finished with a 212 for the high series of 756.

While no official records for the current season, Rose Marsh, secretary of the Detroit Women's Bowling Association, revealed that it was the first perfect game this season and the eighth in the history of Detroit women's bowling.

Miss Marsh also stated that the 756 series was the fourth highest bowled in Michigan. The top mark of 776 is held by Ann Setlock, day manager at Garden Lanes in Garden City, who also has a 756 and 757 to her credit, while Evelyn Brooks has a 756 which Miss Waling equaled.

Penske, Firestone top hockey lead

The logjam in the Southfield Over 30 Hockey League playoffs was untangled a bit last Thursday when Roger Penske Chevrolet and Arley's Firestone both won to take the lead in the series standings. Both have 3-1-0 records with three dates left in the playoffs.

Penske downed Northland Hesting, 5-3. Five of the eight goals were scored in the opening period. Northland opened the scoring on a goal by Pete Johnson. Penske tied it with Paul Keszle's marker, but Northland went back in front briefly on a goal by Reno Merlo. Harvey Supers' goal tied the game again, and Penske went ahead to stay when Zory Berkis tallied. Penske's other goals came from John O'Dell and Ray Brunet, while Northland's final tally was scored by Don Brooks.

Firestone nipped Concourse Cannera. Firestone's Jim Bradley opened scoring with a goal late in the second period. The winners went up by so goals early in the third stanza when Bob Young slammed home a shot. Three minutes later, Concourse's Frank Goldberg scored to close a gap.

Sawyer's Funeral Home, the loser, set five-straight previous contests, set league champion Spartan Concourse 4-3. Sawyer goals: Ken Sturges tied in a fine game, while Tom Apell and Bill Boyd each scored a goal. Hal Thornton and Jim Agerson provided Sawyer's other goals.

Spartan's Ray Tremblay, the league scoring champion, fired in two goals and provided an assist.

NHIS grad is honored

Dan Meen, a graduate of North Farmington High School, seems to have developed a nice blend of scholarship and athletics at Western Michigan University.

McLean wound up his collegiate swimming career at WMU by being named a 1st Gary Scholar, and also by breaking two individual school records and participating in three record-setting relays.

The Military award goes to athletes who have combined both academic and athletic achievement at Western. McLean had a cumulative grade-point average of 4.0 point scale.

At McLean's last meet, the Mid-American Conference championships, the 14-150 lb. under set school records in the 100-yd butterfly (1:53.83) and the 500 yd butterfly (12:51.17). He also swam a leg, the record-setting 400-yd medley leg along with the 400 and 800 freestyle relays.
