

Even your evenings are divisible. Albert Caparo designs a gown in two pieces. White polished cotton skirt, navy braid trimmed. Navy matte peasant top $130.

How TO GET MORE MILEAGE OUT OF YOUR WARDROBE

First, you buy a new small sport car like this (it gets 29 miles to the gallon!) and with the money you save you can buy a whole new wardrobe. Come to DAVIDSON'S and we'll show you how to s-t-r-e-t-c-h your dollars and make one outfit work like two—or more.

Is it a coat or is it a suit? It's Both! Very clever these travel coats. This one zips apart at the waist to become a suit. Spanish gold or tan. $98.

Another foul-weather friend. A poplin raincoat by Luba in cinnamon or green $78. Add a tea shirt, wide belt, scarf and jewels and voilà a dress!

Jogging in style. Three matching pieces in coffee and cream terry cloth. Hooded jacket $22, striped tee shirt $14, Pants $18. (Not shown, short shorts $8)

Back to nature with natural fibers accented with Indian jewelry. Blue or brown muslin ticking big top $50 and olympic pants to match $50. (Same tea shirt)

All wrapped up from head to toe. A white cotton/polyester wrap skirt $26 topped with a cotton tea shirt (all colors) $5. Kenzo's ribby cardigan in toast $34. Hemp rope belt $18.

The coats are from the Inner Circle, Street Level. Gown, Upper Level. All of the put-togethers, scarves, belts and accessories from Sportique, Street Level. The real jewelry by M & J Savitt and Les Bernard. Signed Indian jewelry. Accessory Boutique, Street Level.
