

More room for education

Pilgrim Congregational Church of Birmingham, Adams Road just north of Big Beaver, broke ground Palm Sunday for a 2,000 square foot addition. The new addition (left), when completed in the fall, will house Sunday school classes for 75 to 90 children, a church office and minister's office. Pastor of the church, the Rev. Ronald W. Smith, estimated cost of the addition at $75,000. Sunday school classes, such as the one shown being taught by Gail Fitzsimmons of Rochester, are now being held in the church basement. Architect for the addition is Donald W. Smith of Birmingham and contractor is C. Henry Haberkorn and Son of Orchard Lake.

Women plan family fair

The United Methodist Women of the First United Methodist Church of Birmingham will present a family country fair Friday, April 25, for members of the church. The 1975 theme for the UMW is "family" and this is the first of several activities planned for the church families during the year. Plans have been made for entertainment including a stroll through central park, ice cream and pop shops, fish pond, bingo room, arcade, slave auction, and hot dog stand. The Greenery and a play by the Pleasant Street Players. Mrs. May Nofz, 1180 Norfolk, Birmingham, and Mrs. Fran Middleton, 6931 E. Dartmoor, West Bloomfield, are co-chairpersons for this event.

VASU-LYNCH Funeral Home

Phone Liberty 9-0200

Dear friends,

Authorities agree that it is not only correct to permit a child to attend a funeral but, from about the age of seven, the child may be encouraged to attend. If the child is unwilling, he should not be pressured. However, he should not be denied the knowledge of the reality of death and funerals.

Respectfully,

Edward J. Lynch
