Farmington (HbserverCSEccentric

ne 86 Number 62

izy, May 22, 1975

Farmington, Michigan

Fifteen Cent

Board kills adviser seat for students

FARMINGTON—While the board of solucation agreed that student opinion is valuable, they turned down as necessary actions. The solution is the secondary actions is valuable, they turned down a solution to be board to mendation to create a student adviso-ing to a committee of three, headed by might. A committee of three, headed by and composed of trustees an Roder. The solution, Lichtman student advisory seas on the board mer economendation failed when board president Gary Lichtman, treas, the tree William Gravius and secretary materials given to each board mem-bers and the solution failed when board president Gary Lichtman, treas, the student adviser, but that it indicated student adviser. Bar board is the student to student adviser. Bar bar it is student adviser. Dist that it is the student adviser. Dist that it is the student adviser. Bar bar it is rised, we will consider it is its re-metited is consider it is the student is bend and feated). "Lichtman said 'fit it is re-metited is consider it is the student is bend and the present Student Roard Table." "TUDENT ROUND Table is a its STUDENT ROUND Table is a its STUDENT ROUND Table is a its student adviser is the student is a student adviser is a student is bend and the present Student Roard Table.

mittee is recommendations. If T is NOT a most point or a dead "IT is NOT a most point or a dead tiem inow that it has been de-rised. we will consider it is are biguted points involved the elect-tion situation. Geletion of materials proto each board meeting, and the passible superfluity of the position thrs. Makinem asked whether the chool district would have to abaerb the cost of the election. Businem mean ager William Friak and the cost of meeting by the suders proto to each board meeting, and the chool district would have to abaerb the cost of the election. Businem mean ager William Friak and the cost of the school government elections than the school government elections the mean sol indoor, should become stronger, she add. Lichtman confirmed the need for the school government election the school government election and the school government elections and the s

Parade

PARMINGTON-The Farm-ington chapters of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Le-gion will appose their annual Me-morial Day parade beginning 10 a.m. Monday. The begin at the in-tersection of Mooney Road and Grand River. Participanga will walk to the memorial at the former of Grand River and Exprington roads.

roads. Memorial Day service will be given by Maj. Gen. Natif Kelel at the memorial at 11:30 a.m. The Memorial Day banquet will be held Sunday. May 32. For tick-ets, call Mrs. Robert Smith, 21109 Laurelawork

- By WYLLE GERDES FARMINGTON HILLS-Residents of a subdivision near 1488 and Hal-stead Road will have the help of Farmington Hills in combating noise and dirt from the freeway. After approxing a reaching opposed by the residents, the city council or-dered administrators to ask the Mich-igan Highway Department's help in posed of members from all three high schools, whold become strenger, his add. Lichtmain confirmed the need for statent input into board dictaions, bat voiled concern over the student sol-tory committee's recommendations. The student of the student solution input, and i'll minuch in fewer of the concept of a student representative to the board of education." He said the board gave credence to the Round Table, which for many ground." While he believed in student sounding boards, it might be better to have more than one person areve as the fun-nel of student opinion. "It's better to have not just one, hat many, in fact, i think it would be a good iden to extend the Round Table

A little brick schoolhouse

Hills council backs residents

By CORINNE ABATT

"MANY OF them say they would like to put up a historical marker and keep the building in the same style it is."

Nichols School-It has seen better days. (Staff photo by Harry Mauthe)

By CORINNE ABATT
FARBUINGTON HILLS—Wart some-thing different in the way of a horne-There's a one-room schoolbase for a real exp-cacher since his com-a real exp-cacher since his com-tistory of Firmington. says the baild-ing was named after an early land-day and evening classes. The latter call constantly about buying it to opm cal constantly about buying it to opm call constantly about buying it topm call constantly about buying to Peel, began in the Farmingto in an organized way in 1800 Ev-fore that. Nathan Power and Mead were teaching winter and mer terms.

The Farmington Board of Education leared the title and sold the school bout four years ago. The present

Farmington needs committee people

FARMINGTON—The city's beau-ication commission is three people nort of its 15-member limit and rean't seem to be able to find anyone institution communication in the second seco project, but they're not formally obli-project. But they're not formally obli-pated. We need members more than we need friends right now." Mrs.

To become a member, a candidati must attend at least one meetin prior to his request for confirmation After he has announced his interest he must be approved by the city coun and, but no one has volunteered We're puting texth just to get people to come. R's very hard to find prople. There are people known as the people of the people have sin who help out on their pet pro-down latered in becoming of the people have an end of the people have tary School. There are people in the people in the people tary School. There are people in the people

Anyone interested in applying to one of the three vacant position should call Mrs. Bruce, Mrs. McSha or the city offices

Residents of a subdivision south of the I-896 expressway complained to the Farmington Hills City Council about noise from owners are Mr and Mrs Bernard Sherry of Farmington. It may be that until the site is ro-zoned, the filte schoolhouse will stand vacant Unless. of course, somvore comes along who wants a chargoing, building, solid as a borth shelter, one large room with a hosy bathroom and a girls' bathroom, for a coury home.

