A CHRISTIAN
From a Methodist Point of View.

The largest protestant church in America had its origin among students at Oxford University and was first organized, 170 years ago, when John Wesley found the classes first known as the United Societies.
Thirty-five years later, 1794, the church was organized in America as it now exists.

Its purpose is to seek and to save the lost and to disseminate the Pentecostal spirit and life.
It does not consider itself the only or sole church of Jesus Christ.
It defines a church as a company of men having the form and seeking the power of Godliness united in order to pray together, to receive the word of exhortation and to watch over one another in love, that they may help each other to work out their salvation.

It honors and seeks to co-operate with every other church that exalts the name of Christ as the Saviour of men.
It believes that Christ died to save all but that no one can be saved who refused to accept salvation.
The only previous condition it has shown for those who seek admission as members is an affirmative response to two questions:
"Do you desire to flee from the wrath to come?" "Do you wish to be saved from your sins?"

It believes and teaches that there is a wrath to come and that all men are sinners, that is, that by their own nature they are inclined to evil and that continually.
While Episcopalian in administration and form of government, it is essentially democratic in spirit, its great law making body being made up of clerical and lay representatives in equal number elected by ballot, for the expressed purpose of helping the church membership.

Its general rules may be summed up under three heads:
I. Negative—Doing no harm, avoiding evil of every kind, especially that which is most generally practiced.
II. Positive—Doing good, being merciful in every kind after their power as they have opportunity, doing good of every possible sort and as far as possible to all men.
III. Attending upon all the ordinances of God.

People belonging to other Christian churches who wish to unite with us are accepted by transfer of membership.
Those belonging to no Christian church may be required to undergo a probationary period of membership, usually for six months during which they may have all opportunity to test themselves and at the same time to give the church an opportunity to test their sincerity.

Any member of the church may cease to be a member at any time by formally requesting the pastor, in writing, to withdraw his or her name from the roll of members.
Our church is evangelistic and we cordially invite every man, woman and child not belonging to any other Christian church to unite with us.
We believe our rules, regulations and usages are based upon the Word of God and, are designed only with the thought of extending the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

The Horseman Likes a fine animal. You get the horse and Harvell's Condition Powders will do the rest. It is the best condition powder on the market. Absolutely no waste and every ingredient medicinal.
Used by all the leading eastern racing stables. You should try them and see for yourself. Price 5c per package. Sold by T. H.
McGee.
J. A. Carr & Son, Lansing, Mich., writes: "We have used Harvell's Condition Powders on our livery horses for about three years and have always found them superior to all others. We have found that livery horses are subject to great abuse and Harvell's Condition Powders always bring back the appetite, and puts them on their pins."
Many of us will thoughtlessly answer, money, but health is far more necessary. Money will not cure rheumatism, sprains, cuts, wounds, bruises, burns, scalds, sores and such troubles, but Renne's Pain-Killing Oil will Never known to fail. Try it.
Price, 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by T. H. McGee.
