Detroit Horse Show planned

By FRED DeLANO

The most extravagars equine com-petitive presentation Michigan has ever known will turn the Bioonfield Open Hunt Club into a national mecca for horse show lovers the last three weeks of June. Not girly has BOH expanded its own 46th afinual Detroit Horse Show into two separate segments, but it also has rescued the now defunct 63-year-old Grosse Pointe Hunt Club show and has given it a new name as well as new horse.

As a result, BOH will offer these back-to-back attractions for total prise money of $85,080—the richest horze show purse in the state's history:
Friday through Sunday, June 13-15, the dressage division of the Detroit Horse Show (formerly Grosse Points's dates).

Wedneaday through Sunday, June 18-15, the Motor City Horse Show (formerly Grosse Points's dates).

Tuesday through Sunday, June 24-29, the Industry-imper division of the Detroit Horse Show (formerly Grosse Points's dates).

Oakland U. camp for young matmen

The first annual Oakland University Ploneer Wrestling and Conditioning Camp is set for the last week in June and the first two weeks in July, Camp director Max Haase, Oakland University varsity wrestling cosech, said here is a good turnout than far but there is still space for more wreathers.
The wrestling camp will have an abundance of talented instructors and schnickans. Haase will act as camp director with help from such notable Cahtland County coaches as Ryle
Smith, coach at West Bloomfeld ligh
