B'nai B'rith tells officers for 1975-76

The Metropolitan Detroit B'nai B'rith Council comprised of 25 lodges with nearly 7,000 members, has elected David Bitker as president.

Bitker, a past president and charter member of the Central Lodge, has been active in B'nai B'rith for 18 years and served as a member of the executive committee of the Jewish Community Council.

He is vice chairman of the Michigan Region Advisory Board of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and on the board of the Wayne State University Hillel Foundation.

He is vice president of the B'nai B'rith Covenant Credit Union and was chairman of the youth services appeal.

Bitker has served as a past president of the Construction Industry Credit Group and he is a partner and treasurer of the National Lumber Company.

He lives in Farmington Hills and is a member of Congregation Adat Shalom.

Other council officers are: vice presidents: Richard Kay, Jeffery Revitz, Earnest Shaw and Martin Weston; secretaries: Sanford Friedman and Har-

Off to Yellowstone

The camper bus on the grounds of University Hills Christian Center will take off for Yellowstone Park this summer, one of a cavalcade, carrying students for a two week study of geology. Guests at John Wesley College's open house on the off-campus center in Farmington learned about the travel study courses the college offers to young and old alike where the camper serves as transportation, housing and classroom for a wide variety of courses. The camper travelers who will be studying geology this summer for two credits (with options for independent study) meet for the trip's orientation session on Aug. 1 and will leave Aug. 18. Inquiries on the trip or requests for information on upcoming trips is available by calling the center, located at 27000 Farmington Road.
