Hills man urges support for political reform bill

A petition drive is under way in the Southfield-Farmington-Redford area to gather support for political reform legislation under consideration by the Michigan legislature.

The informal petition drive was initiated by local members of Common Cause of Michigan. The group is a non-partisan citizens lobby with 200,000 members nationwide and about 800 members in the 17th Congressional District. Common Cause urged the Legislature to adopt political reform measures earlier this year.

Petitions will be circulated by Common Cause volunteers in neighborhoods and shopping centers throughout the northwestern area.

Ken Mourant, of Farmington Hills, is district coordinator for the lobbying group. He said the group intends to gather several hundred signatures which will be forwarded to state representatives and senators.

MOURANT ALSO said Common Cause is urging residents to write to their state representatives and senators asking for support of the political reform legislation.

"This is the most important, comprehensive, political reform bill to open up state government to its citizens ever placed before a state legislature," Mourant said.

PAUL MOURANT

"If enacted, it would go far to eliminate the use of big money and secrecy by special interest to manipulate state government."

Despite the fact that this bill has the support of both Democratic and Republican leaders, the bill faces strong opposition from "special interest groups that like things the way they are," he said.
