

Farmington man involved in accident

Police are continuing an investigation into a four-vehicle accident Monday on Telegraph Road that killed a Bloomfield Township man, seriously injured a Detroit couple and caused minor injuries to a Farmington Hills man.

Dead is Bruce D. Caplan, 28, a student who lived with his mother at 708 Day Run Road.
Franklin Village Police Chief said Caplan died instantly when a car driven by his brother Steven, 32, veered into oncoming traffic, setting up a chain of collisions.

Listed in stable condition in William Beaumont Hospital are Henry Michien, 38, of Detroit, driver of the first car struck by the Caplan vehicle; and his wife, Mary Michien, 37.
Steven Caplan was treated for multiple lacerations and lacerations at Beaumont Hospital and released.

Timothy Michien, 17 of Greenbush, Ala., another passenger in the Michien car, was also treated and released.

Joseph Newmyer, 32, of Farmington Hills, driving alone, was unable to avoid the cars colliding in front of him. Chief Wilson said Newmyer suffered minor injuries, but did not go to the hospital for treatment.

A car pulling a horse trailer was forced off the road and was damaged slightly as it brushed against the other vehicles.

Wilson said witnesses reported that the Caplan car passed them heading south on Telegraph at 9:45 a.m.

when, for unknown reasons it went out of control and into the northbound lanes.

There were no skid marks at the scene, Wilson said. Michigan State Police and Bloomfield Township Police assisted at the accident scene.

Services for Caplan were held Tuesday in Holyrose Memorial Chapel in Oak Park, and burial was in Holyrose Memorial Park in Mt. Clemens.
Surviving in addition to his brother and mother, Mrs. Anne Scheinfeld Caplan of Bloomfield Township, are a twin brother, Brian; another brother, Jeffrey; his father, Stanley Caplan of Royal Oak; and his grandmother, Teresa Caplan of Southfield.
