Caterer robbed of cash, datebook

At least 20 families who expected extra special parties in the next six to eight weeks are likely to be disappointed unless they contact their caterer quickly.

Yvonne Gill Davis, once manager and executive chef at the Money Tree who now runs her own specialized catering business, lost her appointment book.

"It had a list of my clients, dates and everything," she said. "I don't know what to do."

The loss was a result of a robbery at the French Market Festival at the Kern Block in Detroit. She also lost more than $1,000 in cash, the day's receipts, she said.

Her customers have included Mrs. Los Miller, P. Birmingham, Mrs. Miles Zeman, Franklin; Mrs. deVault, Franklin, and Mrs. Suzman, Bloomfield Hills. Mrs. Davis' customers may contact her at 864-3505.

French group cites Harrison students

FARMINGTON HILLS—Two Harrison High School students received awards from the Alliance Francaise de Detroit at a recent ceremony at Wayne State University.

Marypat Abowd and Lynne Burrell received books about France in appreciation for their interest in learning French customs and language.

Miss Abowd is a senior in French IV and Miss Burrell is a junior taking a French III class.

The students were nominated for the award by their teacher, Mrs. Miriam Hall.

McManus honored as Minuteman

FARMINGTON—Farmington engineering consultant Richard McManus was honored in Lansing by Governor Milliken recently as one of 25 "Michigan Minutemen" who talk up the virtues of the state to people concerned with business and tourism.

The 25 Minutemen receiving the Governor's Award were selected from nominees offered by district and state associations, county boards of commissioners and city and village councils participating in the Michigan Minute program. The awards were presented by the Governor at the Capitol as part of the observance of Michigan Week for 1975.

Farmington school tax-exempt-IRS

FARMINGTON—The Internal Revenue Service has issued a ruling recognizing the tax-exempt status of The Farmington Cooperative Nursery, Inc., a private school. The school has announced a racially non-discriminatory policy in the admission of students to all activities of the school.

Wabeek-In-The-Hills.

The place you've been thinking about for 20 years.

Home has meant a lot of different things to you, hasn't it? First, a place for the two of you to begin your life together. Then, when the kids were born, you needed more room, and even had an entirely new focus on what a neighborhood should provide.

And you worked. And you grew. And the children grew up. And you had good days in those places where you lived.

Now, it's time for another new place. Isn't it? A home with yet another new focus - on your life as it is now.

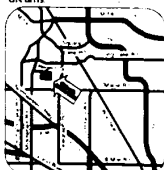

That's why we built Wabeek in the Hills. Because there are a lot of people - just like you - who said that someday, someday, Wabeek in the Hills is your someday now. With its elegant homes, its rolling land, its golf course, even the nearness of its remoteness.

Come and visit. See if it will seem that we've heard your thoughts and answered your dreams.

Now, it's time for another new place. Isn't it? A home with yet another new focus - on your life as it is now.

That's why we built Wabeek in the Hills. Because there are a lot of people - just like you - who said that someday, someday,

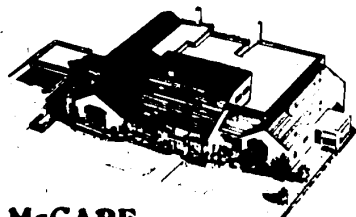

Those who buy new homes at Wabeek-in-the-Hills now will be eligible for a credit of up to $2,000 on their 1975 income tax. And in addition, all our homes are covered by the new Warranty and 10-year Home Owners Protection Plan. Built on the highest ground in the Wabeek area, Wabeek in the Hills offers a choice of four floor plans, providing varying combinations of one- and two-bedroom homes, each with a study, and either two or two and a half baths. Models are open 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. every day. For further information call: 851-3478 or 652-3994.
