Pickles and relishes to be made at home

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has a booklet to help make your own pickles and relishes. It gives directions for selecting and preparing pickling ingredients and for processing pickles and relishes. Included are basic recipes for old-time favorites such as pickled peaches and piccalilli. For a copy of "Making Pickles and Relishes at Home" send 45 cents to Consumer Information, Dept. 25, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

The booklet includes the following advice:

- Alum and lime are not needed to make pickles crisp and firm if good-quality ingredients and up-to-date procedures are used.
- Use tested recipes. And be sure to measure or weigh all ingredients carefully.
- Select tender vegetables and firm fruit.

- Use pure granulated salt if available. Do not use iodized table salt; it may darken pickles. Uniodized table salt can be used, but the materials added to salt to prevent caking may make the brine cloudy.
- "Making Pickles and Relishes at Home" is one of almost 250 selected federal consumer publications listed in the current edition of the "Consumer Information Index." Published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration, the Index is available free from Consumer Information, Dept. 25, Pueblo, Colorado 81009, or at Federal Information Centers throughout the country.

'Our Town' is theme for show

"Our Town" — the Rochester area in the past and in the present — is the theme for artist Dorine Gross's one woman show which will be presented by Objects and Images Gallery from Friday through July 22.

Her paintings, mostly in watercolor and pen and ink, were done from old photographs and on-the-spot sketches. One depicts the old Clarion Publishing Company where C. Seed began his newspaper. Others show the long-gone Rochester Woolen Mills and area cider mills.

Born in Algonac, Ms. Gross studied at Michigan State. Back living in Rochester, she found that many of the old buildings and interesting landmarks of the area had been razed or defaced. Because she feels that "without a link to our past, there's no present", she is trying to record some of the feeling of earlier times.
