

Pastor returns as Sunday guest

REV. J. W. ANGERMAN

The Rev. Jack W. Angerman, former minister of education of First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham, will return to the church Sunday. His sermon topic will be "Remember the Story" with scripture readings from Deuteronomy 26:5-9 and Acts 5:30-32. Following the 10 a.m. service, Mr. Angerman will give a lay education talk entitled "Christian Responsibility - Ability."

After leaving First Presbyterian Church in 1967, Mr. Angerman served seven years at Synod of Ohio education consultant for both the Cincinnati and Miami presbyteries. He was elected associate executive of the Miami Presbytery, Synod of the Covenant, in January 1974.

A native of Ohio, he prepared for a career as a professional pharmacist at Ohio State University College of Pharmacy and was employed in that capacity by Parke, Davis & Co. for eight years. During this time he was active as a deacon and elder in Woodward Avenue Presbyterian Church in Detroit.

He graduated with honors in Christian education from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary.

His wife, Sue, will be in Birmingham with him. She is an elder, counselor and accredited clinical member of the International Transactional Analysis Association and is developing the use of this skill in the gospel ministry of both pastors and lay persons.

Following Mr. Angerman's guest preaching, the church's summer preaching schedule will continue with The Rev. Charles A. Sommers, minister of education, speaking Aug. 3 and 10 and The Rev. Edward E. Claxton, minister of youth and conference development, Aug. 17. Both ministers are from First Presbyterian Church.

Toronto pastor to visit Kirk

The Rev. Dr. A. Leonard Griffith, pastor of Deer Park United Church in Toronto, will make his first visit to Kirk in the Hills as a summer guest preacher Sunday. His sermon topic at both the 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. services at the Bloomfield Hills church will be "Don't Despise the Commonplace."

A native of Erie, Dr. Griffith emigrated with his parents to Canada in 1929. He graduated from McGill University in 1942 and from the United Theological College in Montreal in 1945. He also holds a degree from Queen's University and has done post-graduate study at Oxford.

Dr. Griffith has held five pastorate, the longest of which was at the Chalmers United Church in Ottawa, where the 2,000-member congregation numbered many senators, diplomats and members of Parliament. In 1960, he succeeded Dr. Leslie Weatherhead as minister of the City Temple in London, England, where he remained for six years.

In 1965 Dr. Griffith conducted a preaching tour of Australia and he has travelled widely throughout Canada, the United States and the British Isles as a preacher and lecturer at ministerial and lay conferences. He is one of the regular summer preachers at the Presbyterian Bible Conference at Massanetta Springs, Va., and he is a regular preacher on the Chicago Sunday Evening Club.

Dr. Griffith has written 18 books.

THE BIBLE IN FOCUS

LUKEWARM WILL NOT DO!
Sometimes the middle of the road is the safest place, but not in salvation. We either receive the Lord Jesus Christ or we do not - there is no in-between. Jesus said, "You cannot serve two masters." Either we serve God or we serve other than God, and that is idolatry. (Because that are lukewarm, I will spue thee out... Rev. 3:16).
