Our Terry Murphy likes her job

It isn't often when one has talent and looks combined. TV2s Terry Murphy has a BA in speech and theatre plus a title of Miss Ohio in the 1968 Miss Universe pageant.

The Farmington resident doesn't flaunt her accomplishments. She is modest, friendly but on guard. Dis-

The WJBK news has opened for Terry a wider horizon. Speaking about the importance of television as a medium she said: "Two thirds of the viewers get their news from television and the percent-ness in methics become not larger. View.

"Two thirds of the viewers get their mess from television and the percentage is getting larger and larger. Viewars are more interested in local news than national.

"In order to know what's going on we have to watch television, but we also have a fear to turn it on and hear bad news. One station decided to run all good news. It wasn't that they couldn't find a good afgle to the story but it deed. down.

"People would rather be entertained, but the automobile business and the economy becomes our main source of broadcasting. It is difficult to make that transition from reality to fiction. We are to present the facts, which affect us." Terry said.
"Ty people are faced with pressure when confronted with a bulletin, a space program or a sudder national news within a half hour spot with
